

ONLINE LEARNING

SAATT

As part of the GFTU Supporting Active Ageing Through Training Project, two pilot online training courses have been developed for Trade Unions and their members. The two courses will run from 1st September - 30th September 2012. Course one will focus on Negotiating Age Related Policies and Course two will focus on Personal needs in times of change. At the end of the course feedback will be sort from all who have taken part as this will go along way in further helping to develop the online courses. Please see below for details:

The screenshot shows the SAATT online learning homepage. It features a navigation menu with 'Home' and 'Courses'. The main content area is titled 'Available courses' and lists two courses: 'SAATT Strand One - Negotiating for Age' and 'SAATT Strand Two - Personal Needs in Times of Change'. Each course has a brief description and a small image. A calendar for August 2012 is visible in the bottom right corner.
